The BUSH Family.

The Bush family has been identified with the Bay of Quinte district for the past century. Three brothers, John, Robert and Henry Bush came from New York State to Canada, and settled around Hay Bay, sometime before 1800.

After a short sojourn in Adolphustown, Henry went West, and was never heard of again. Robert crossed into Prince Edward County, where he settled on the north shore of Lake Consecon, and his descendants are found in Reach and Brighton townships, Middlesex County. His history is vaguely recalled at this late day; but it is known that he had a son, Abraham, who was drowned in the Cold Creek, in Millier.

The third brother, John, who was born in 1775, lived on Hay Bay, but finally settled in Sidney, a few miles south-east of Frankford, where he died in 1858, aged eighty-three years. He married Dorcas Ross, of Scottish parentage, and had eleven children. This young couple early inculcated into their family industrious habits, and religious and temperance principles, whose value has since been exemplified in the good citizenship displayed by their posterity.

Henry Bush, who went with his young wife at an early date into Thurlow, where he cleared and settled on a farm, was known for his high moral qualities. In days when the use of intoxicants was a general custom, and tobacco in one form or another was considered a necessity, he was never known to taste the former or use the latter. Strictly honest, his word was as good as his bond. He was a regular attendant of the Presbyterian Church. His industry and acumen enabled him to accumulate quite a large fortune, and to give his family a good start in life.

James and William Bush, in many characteristics resembled their brother Henry; and they always received the respect and confidence of the community. They settled in Sidney in 1853, where they acquired two hundred acres of land, comprising the sixth lot in the fourth concession. They worked together until the land for the greater part was cleared and paid for, when they divided it into two portions; James taking the western, and William the eastern half. The former portion is now owned by Edwin Bush; while the latter is in the possession of Robert J. Bush, who also owns eighty acres in the fourth concession.

John Bush, who is the grandson of the Pioneer, and the second son of Henry Bush, was born in Thurlow in 1840, and now owns one hundred and fifty in the fourth concession of ~~THURLOW~~ Sidney, where he has lived for many years. The adjoining Bush farms are in a high state of cultivation, for the land in that section of the township is very fertile. John Bush, being of a mechanical turn of mind, had his barn built according to his own ideas, making it replete with every convenience, and one of the best in the immediate neighborhood. His family are members of the Methodist Church, in the affairs of which he takes an active interest, being a steward and trustee. John Bush is conservative in politics, and somewhat of the school of the late Sir John A. MacDonald, of whom he is a great admirer.

Of the younger sons of the Pioneer, Zenas started for himself in the world, planting his stake in a farm in Richmond. He soon after moved into Murray, where he lived for eight years, until, in 1874, he bought lot 101 in the 4th concession of Ameliasburgh. Several members of his family now live in the old home, where his son David B. works the farm, and is held in high respect by all his neighbors of the Consecon district. The high principles which characterized the other members of the family, are recognized in those now settled in Ameliasburgh. Although Presbyterians born, Zenas Bush and his family joined the Methodist church, of which they are attached adherents.

Brother and Sister Meet First Time in 50 Years

89 YEARS OLD

Windsor C. Angell.

Richard J. Bush of Boulder, Colo., Visits Sister, Mrs. George F. Morehouse, in City.

1938

A brother and sister met here this week for the first time in 50 years, since the brother left the family home in Canada as a youth to seek his fortune in western United States.

Richard J. Bush, a hotel owner of Boulder, Colo., left Wednesday after spending three days in Wadsworth with his sister, Mrs. George F. (Mary) Morehouse, 203 East Moulton street, and his niece, Mrs. Hattie L. Webb, 115 Main avenue.

It was Mr. Bush's first visit in the east. His sister has lived here about 35 years. Mr. Bush came here after visiting his former home in Canada, on a tour which will include New York city, Washington, D. C., and Kansas City before he returns to his home.

402 CALLENDER AVENUE PEORIA, ILLINOIS

23 June 1954

Mr H.C.Burleigh,
Bath, Ontario,

Dear Mr Burleigh:

Your communication in the Hartford Times of May 22, last attracted my attention, from the fact that you stated you were tracing certain early settlers of that part of Canada.

In this connection I will be interested to know if you have any data on a William T. Bush and his family who went to Canada in the early 1800's or thereabouts from Vermont probably from Chittenden county, or maybe farther north.

The 1790 census of Vermont gives a William Bush as a resident of Sudbury, which is in Rutland Co. Vt. but I don't know whether this is the same family or not. Tradition says that the Bush family located in "Upper Canada" which isn't very definite, but which information was given me many years ago by an elderly man of this branch of the family.

I will appreciate hearing from you as to whether you have come across this family. The children of William T. Bush and his wife Azuba Murray were Freyer T. Azuba Mead, William T. Jr., German, and Daniel T. Bush. Haven't any dates, but they must have been born in the 1790's or early 1800's. Eber Murray the father of Azuba by his first wife, lived in or near Stockbridge, Mass. having gone there from Connecticut, then later to Vermont, being one of the first settlers of Orwell, Vt.

If it should happen that you want her Murray ancestry I will be glad to send it to you. Thank you very much for advising me as to whether you happen to have anything on this family.

Sincerely,

Reply - negative 28.6.54
